STORAGE & COMMISSION.
The undersigned has

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel.

Friday, Morning, July 25.

Advertisements must be handed in before 10 o'clock in the morning of the day, to insure insertion in the next morning's paper.

Mexico—the probability of War—British Interference—American Fleet in the Gulf and American Troops in Texas.

The news from Mexico is of quite a belligerent character. Foiled in her attempts to thwart annexation by a treaty and acknowledgment of Texas independence, the "Republic of the Sun" has now settled down on what she calls her "reserved rights," and by her National Legislature, not only complains to the civilized world, but considers that the Congress of the United States of the North has, by a decree, which its Executive has sanctioned, resolved to incorporate the Territory of Texas with the American Union.

"That this manner of appropriating to itself, territories upon which other nations have rights, introduces a monstrous novelty, endangering the peace of the world, and violating the sovereignty of nations."

"That this usurpation, now communicated to the prejudice of Mexico, has been in jealous preparation for a long time; at the same time that the most cordial friendship was proclaimed, and that, on the part of this Republic, the existing treaties between it and those States were respected scrupulously and loyally."

"That the said annexation of Texas to the U. States tramples upon the conservative principles of society, attacks all the rights that Mexico has to that territory, is an insult to her dignity as a sovereign nation, and threatens her independence and political existence."

"That the law of the United States, in reference to the annexation of Texas to the United States, does in nowise destroy the rights that Mexico has, and will enforce, upon that department."

"That the United States, having triumphed on the principles which served as a basis to the treaties of friendship, commerce and navigation, and more especially to those of boundaries fixed with precision, even previous to 1823, they are considered as having by that nation."

"And, finally, that the unjust spoliation of which they wish to make the Mexican act on the victim, give her the clear right to USE ALL HER RESOURCES AND POWER TO RESIST TO THE LAST MOMENT SAID ANNEXATION."

She, then, as will be seen, declares the necessity of the levying of arms, and the acquisition of means to arm a full-fledged capacity. This state of things has been brought about by the action of the Texas Congress, refusing the treaty with Mexico, and accepting the terms of the U. States for annexation.

Doubtless Mexico has been led to the adoption of this course through the influence of the British Government, whose insidious wiles can be traced in the difficulties of all foreign nations, and whose interference is as pernicious to domestic tranquility as it is injurious to the amicable settlement and the peace and tranquility of the world. Whether or not England intends to play the game to the end—compel Mexico to declare war, and to make common cause with her in hopes to acquire possession of Oregon and California, remains for time to determine. Our opinion is that she does; and if actual hostilities are not in existence between Mexico and the United States in a very short time, the two countries will not owe their state of peace to the councils of the Cabinet of St. James.

The existence of a large American fleet in the Gulf, and the occupation of Texas by our troops, may deter the Mexican Government for a while from proceeding to extreme steps; but it is evident that, with the aid she has taken, sooner or later a conflict must ensue. Such an event will bring about a state of affairs, that, however much they may be deplored by a large portion of the people of the United States, will call for the united and energetic action of the American people to "stand by their country," and maintain its honor and integrity.

THE MEMPHIS CONVENTION.—This Western and South Western Convention met at Memphis on the 4th. One hundred and fifty delegates were present from Tennessee, five or six each from Mississippi, Arkansas and Illinois, and two from Pittsburgh. Dr. Lewis Shanks, of Tenn., presided. As the attendance was partial, and as some of the most important States were not represented, no final action was had on the various topics discussed, and the Convention adjourned to the 12th of November next. It is desired to have the whole valley of the Ohio and the Mississippi represented in the adjourned meeting, in order that there may be a full discussion of Western and South Western interests. Committees were appointed to report at the November Convention, on the following subjects:

1. On the Military and Naval resources of the Mississippi Valley, and its utility to create and sustain a Steam Military Marine.
2. On the improvement of the Mississippi river and its tributaries.
3. On a Western National Army.
4. On a National Ship Canal, to connect the Mississippi with the Southern States.
5. On the removal of the Western Rivers.
6. On a Military Road through the Public Lands in the Southwest.
7. On reclaiming submerged grounds along the margins of the Western rivers.
8. On the growth of Cotton.
9. On Manufacturing at the South.
10. On the completion of the Railroad from Charleston to Memphis.

The Cincinnati Gazette remarks: "We hear that the very best feeling prevailed among members of the Convention. Local matters, party topics, political obstructions of every kind, were carefully avoided, the purpose of all seeming to be to recommend and unite upon such measures as would aid to the growth of the West by developing its resources."

IMPORTANT IN TRUTH.—We find the following in last evening's Philadelphia Gazette. We rather think that the tariff had more to do with it than Oregon:

"Gentlemen from Washington state with confidence that Hon. James Buchanan has resigned the Secretaryship of State, and that the President has selected Andrew Stevenson, of Virginia, to fill the place. Differences of opinion as to the Oregon negotiation have induced this step on the part of Mr. Buchanan."—Tribune.

DEADLY INTRIGUE.—On the trial of Andrew Anderson, the man who fired the Charlotte street church, Kensington, in the Philadelphia Criminal Court on Tuesday, it was shown that he kindled the fire with the pulpit bible! Such a case of sacrilege is perhaps not on record.

"The Great Western."

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE."

This divine command is too often lost sight of in this great, enterprising world of ours. Amid the grand march of improvement, which blesses this generation, we are in danger of losing sight of the few superior and original minds which have made these scientific discoveries that are now setting the world in motion. The honor due, for example, to the great mechanical genius of Fulton may be eclipsed by the abundant praise which we bestow upon those who have only improved upon his masterly conceptions. But the might and majesty of the man is seen in his giving birth to the new, sublime discoveries. Inferior minds may polish thoughts which they had not the power to manufacture.

With these simple things premised, let us "give three hearty cheers" for the Steamer "Great Western" and her generous, noble commander. This noble boat will ever be a favorite with those who can appreciate merit. Her appearance on our huge, storm-tossed Lakes, introduced a new comfort for the western traveler. I allude to her elegant gentleman's saloon. Before CAPT. WALKER made this superb improvement, the dark, cramped, airless cabin in the "hulk" was the receptacle for all who journeyed westward. Thus immured under deck, as in a dungeon, the traveler was compelled to inhale the fumes of steam, oil, and bilge-water, by day and by night, sick or well, from Buffalo to Chicago.

But it was left for the "Western" to transform the cheerless prison into a magnificent floating palace. Yet in doing it, she encountered the fierce opposition of all the other boats. It was darkly predicted that she would be top-heavy, cranky, and a most unsafe boat. But an experiment of five years, has satisfied the public of the safety, wisdom and unspeakable luxury of the improvement. Really, it must be a matter of gratitude to Capt. W. that after all these fearful predictions, these prophetic utterances, which were the basis of his last and enterprise.

Another thing. Notwithstanding so many new boats have been set in motion since the "Western" first made her appearance, her speed is about equal to the swiftest of them all. In this respect, I believe, the "Empire" claims for herself the palm. But I have observed for the last two trips the "Empire" has arrived at our pier at about 4 o'clock, while the "Western" for the same two trips has reached here once at 7 o'clock, and the last time at 8 o'clock P. M. Thus in running a distance of eleven hundred and twenty-six miles, there is a difference between them of about three and a half hours! Let it be remembered, too, that one is a new boat in her best condition, while the other is the "Old Favorite" of five years standing. Will our fair, generous citizens unite with me in wishing in bold capitals, on the "swallow's tail" or pendant of the "Western" "Honor to whom honor is due?"

One thing more. In the Captain of this gallant boat, the gentlest and a gentleman, and one who delights to promote the comfort of his passengers. While the sons of poverty find a hearty, as large and susceptible as the broad, deep waters on which his vessel floats.

In writing these lines I wish to honor both the boat and our youthful Queen City of the West. For I know Milwaukee can appreciate merit. A DISINTERESTED FRIEND.

Late and Important from Mexico.

We learn from the New Orleans Tropic the following interesting intelligence. The schooner Greco brought the news. She left Vera Cruz on the 24th ult.

Gen. Bustamante arrived at Vera Cruz on the 17th ult. He offered his services to sustain the integrity of the Mexican territory and the dignity of the Republic. He was received coolly by the government.

We give the decree of the Mexican General Congress, which follows its declaration:

IT IS RESOLVED:

1st. That the Mexican Nation calls upon her children to the defence of her national independence, threatened by the usurpation of Texas, which is intended by the decree of annexation passed by the Congress, and sanctioned by the President of the United States of the North.

2d. In consequence, the Government will call to arms all the forces of the army, according to the authority granted it by the existing laws; and for the preservation of public order, for the support of her public institutions, and in case of necessity, to serve as a reserve to the army. The Government, according to the powers given to it on the 9th of December, 1844, will raise the corps specified by said decree, under the name of "Defenders of the Independence and of the Laws."

MIGUEL ARTISTAN,
President of the Deputies.

FRANCISCO CALDERIN,
President of the Senate.

JOSE JOAQUIN DE HERRERA,
A. D. Luis G. CUYAS.

Palace of the National Government, City of Mexico, June 4, 1845.

A gang of drunken white ruffians attacked an inoffensive colored man in the streets of Indianapolis on the 4th of July, and in the presence of some 200 people, beat him to death. Reason assigned by the mob—"Niggers are getting too numerous and ought to be thinned out." It seems that many years ago the murdered man purchased his freedom in Kentucky.

Mr. De Puy, the editor of the Abolition paper in Indianapolis, was brutally assaulted by one of the mob.

We understand that Professor Morse is about to sail for Europe in August, but he will return in time for the session of Congress. He will carry with him an improved copy of his celebrated telegraph. We have no doubt he will receive that distinguished attention from the savans and statesmen of Europe, to which his extraordinary invention is so justly entitled.

AMBIGUOUS.—There is something exceedingly ambiguous in the following paragraph, which we find in the Pittsfield Sun—we suppose it is intended to be complimentary:

Gov. Dorr will yet be placed on an elevation from which he will look down on his persecutors.

Lieut. Fremont's Exploring Company has been partially disbanded. Some eight or ten have left it, and returned to St. Louis, because they were required to do military duty.

John Tyler has excused himself from complying with the invitation of the Portsmouth Committee to pronounce an eulogy on Gen. Jackson, being probably a little fearful of the old hero's ghost if he undertook such a task; and we think ourselves if any thing could bring the old soldier from his resting place, it would be an oration over his character by John Tyler.—Cour. & Enq.

THE DEAD MARINER.

BY GEORGE D. PRESTON.

Sleep on, sleep on—about thy course
The winds their Sabbath keep;
The winds are round thee, and thy breast
Heaves with the heaving deep.
O'er thee mild eve her beauty flings,
And there the white gull lifts her wings,
And the blue halcyon loves to lave
Her plumage in the deep blue waves.

Sleep on, no willow o'er thee bends
With melancholy air,
No violet springs, nor dewy rose
Its soul of love lays bare;
But there the sea flows, bright and young,
Is sweetly o'er thy slumbers flung,
And, like a weeping mourner fair,
The pale flag hangs its tresses there.

Sleep on, sleep on—the glittering depths
Of ocean's coral caves
Are thy bright urn—thy requiem,
The music of its waves—
Thy purple gossamer forever burn
In fadeless beauty round thy urn,
And pure and deep as infant love,
The blue sea rolls its waves above.

Sleep on, sleep on—the fearful wrath
Of mingling cloud and deep
May leave its wild and stormy track
Above thy place of sleep.
But when the wave has sunk to rest,
As now, 'twill murmur o'er thy breast,
And the bright victims of the sea
Perchance will make their homes with thee.

Sleep on—thy course is far away,
But love hews thee yet—
For thee the heart-wrung sigh is breathed,
And lovely eyes are wet.
And she, thy young and beautiful bride,
Her thoughts are hovering by thy side,
As oft she turns to view with tears,
The Eden of departed years.

EXPEDITION OF THE DRAGOONS.—We already noticed the progress made by the Dragoons under the command of Col. Kearny, which left Fort Leavenworth on the 18th of May, for the Rocky Mountains. We have now advice from them to the 4th of June, in camp near the forks of the Plate. They consist of five companies, amounting in the aggregate to 280 men. On the 24th of May they fell in with the Oregon trail, and after that passed every day some party of emigrants moving towards Oregon or California, with their families and flocks and herds, resembling the movement of the Israelites through the wilderness.

It is understood that the Dragoons are following the Oregon trail, to near the South Pass in the mountains, in order to make that road safe to the emigrants. They are, of course, much relieved by their presence, as they no longer apprehend difficulty with the Indians, having such an armed party on the same road with themselves. The women and children are particularly gratified.

It is further understood, that the Dragoons, after going to the South Pass, will return to Fort Laramie, on the Plate, from that point cross to Bent's Fort, on the Arkansas, and return to Fort Leavenworth, on the Santa Fe trail; thus affording protection to the traders to that country. It is expected, that the Dragoons will accomplish this duty by the last of September.

We also learn, that two companies of Dragoons were to march up the St. Peters to Lake Traverse, and thence to the North Red River—visiting the Sioux and their country. The Sisters have complained of the "Half Breeds" from the settlement in Canada coming to their country, quarreling with them, and killing their buffalo. The Dragoons will put a stop to such incursions.

We are glad to see the Dragoons thus usefully employed. It is by such service that they will recommend themselves to the country, and answer the ends for which these regiments were raised.—St. Louis Republic.

A circumstance happened in one of the towns of Arkansas. A man had been drinking until a late hour at night, before he started for home. Honest folks had long been in bed, and the houses were all shut and dark. The liquor he had taken was too much for him; he did not know where to go. He at last staggered into an empty wagon shed, and fell on the ground. For a long time he lay in all the unconsciousness of drunken sleep, and undoubtedly would have frozen, (for the snow on the ground showed the night to be very cold.) Had not others less insensible than himself been around him. This shed was a favorite rendezvous for the hogs which were out when the new comer arrived, but soon returned to their bed. In the utmost kindness, and with the truest hospitality, they gave their biped companion the middle of the bed; some lying on either side of him, and others acting the part of a quilt. Their warmth prevented him from being injured by exposure. Towards morning he awoke, finding himself comfortable, in blissful ignorance of his whereabouts, he supposed himself enjoying the accommodations of a tavern, in company with other gentlemen. He reached out his hand and catching hold of the stiff bristles of a hog, exclaimed, "Why mister, when did you shave last?"

BEWARE.—A young girl was fined in New Orleans lately, for appearing in the street in boy's clothes. The Justice admitted the right of married women to wear, but denied that single females had any business with such an article.

HAND.—Mr. Woodward, formerly editor of the New Haven Herald, has retired from that establishment. In his valedictory he says, "after the labor and toil of more than thirty years as editor and publisher, he retires, not to repose upon his laurels, but to look to some new source for subsistence."

NOTICE.

The Rev. M. L. Loom will preach in the Unitarian Church in this place, on next Sunday, the 27th inst., at the usual hours.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

THIS troublesome disease is cured by the use of Hall's Uterine Instrument for the cure of Prolapsus and Protrusion Uteri, I am glad to express a highly favorable opinion of its utility. In a severe case of this Protrusion, lately under treatment at Guy's Hospital, it was applied with marked success. Its great superiority over the pessary consists in its affording efficient support to the weak and abdominal integuments, and in its external application, instead of its introduction into the vagina. I quite believe it will accomplish a permanent cure better and more quickly than the pessary.

SAMUEL ASHWELL, M.D.
Of Acad. Phys. and Lecturer to Guy's Hospital.

Sir, Samuel Cooper, after the apparatus had been several months under his inspection, gave the following opinion for publication:—
"This apparatus is beautiful for its simplicity; it is an acquisition to practice. The principle of its operation is quite original and perfect. I shall advise its use, and make use of it in my own practice, in preference to anything I have seen."

The above valuable instrument can be found at the Medical store of the undersigned, who is the agent for the sale of the same in Wisconsin.
